

Noelle Warnement

Lima Senior DECA

Noelle Warnement is a junior from Lima, Ohio. From a young age, she has wanted to help others and seen herself as a global citizen. A natural leader, both in the classroom and in the community, Noelle (or Ellie to her friends), works to find solutions and answers to common problems. She is heavily involved in the arts and has been since a young age. Being involved in the arts has given her several opportunities to be a leader outside of school. She learned that with teamwork, your result with your peers turns out stronger. That lesson has been extended to her DECA experiences.

She has served as the following:

- ❖ Choreographer – she recently choreographed her high school show, Bye Bye Birdie.
- ❖ Dance Captain – With 15 years of experience
- ❖ Stage Manager
- ❖ Co-Teacher for Kindergarten Dance
- ❖ A member of Marching, Concert, and Pep Bands
- ❖ A Variety of Choirs including Masterworks, Spartannaires, and the Spartan 4
- ❖ Active member in her church youth group

Noelle finds the creative outlets in dance and music are helpful in all of her other endeavors. Her hobbies include ceramics singing, performing, dance, and helping others succeed.

DECA Experience:

- 2022-2023 District Public Relations 1st Place
- 2023 – District Integrated Marketing Campaign – 2nd Place
- Attended Central Region Leadership Conference in Milwaukee – Finalist in Case Study Competition
